Local CPA Firm and Affiliates Relocate to New State-of-the-Art Facility to Create Major Financial Services Center.

WARWICK, RHODE ISLAND - DiSanto, Priest & Co., one of Rhode Island's premier Certified Public Accounting (CPA) firms, is relocating to new facilities at 117 Metro Center Boulevard, Warwick, RI.

The 25000 sq. foot facility, created by Michael Integlia & Co. and Vision 3 Architects, is a state-of-the-art space specifically designed for the technological efficiencies demanded by today's financial services.

"In order to provide the high level of service our clients require and to attract quality staff, it's critical to have a leading edge facility." said David DiSanto, Managing Partner of the firm. "This facility was designed to efficiently deliver those services today with ample provision for future growth."

Joining Disanto, Priest, & Co. at the new facility will be affiliates firms, Bentley Wealth Advisors, LLC, Bentley Employee Benefits Group, LLC, Bentley Consulting Group, LLC and the Bentley Foundation, creating one of the largest and most diverse financial services centers in the area.

Designated The Bentley Group, these firms collectively and independently offer leading edge services beyond the traditional tax and accounting services offered by typical CPA firms; cost segregation studies, business valuations, business succession planning, investment planning, management and review, financial planning, forensic accounting, litigation support and expert witness testimony, eldercare services, retirement plan design & administration, employee benefit plan administration, charitable giving planning, human resource services, information technology consulting and marketing advisory services.

"Over the last decade and throughout other regions of the country, the landscape of Accounting Firms has changed dramatically." said John Brough, Partner in Disanto, Priest, & Co., "Clients and their financial matters have become more sophisticated and as such have turned to their CPAs for a greater variety of services and assistance."

The new facility will ultimately be occupied by close to 100 professionals and will be operational on Monday June 9, 2008. Bentley Employee Benefits Group will move in August.
