CANNABIS INDUSTRY

While some accounting professionals are reluctant to represent cannabis clients or learn the industry's complex taxation rules, at DiSanto, Priest & Co., we embrace the industry's evolution, customizing solutions to proactively plan for tomorrow's challenges. We view client relationships as partnerships, and we're committed to treating our partners' businesses as our own.

OUR EXPERIENCE

Through working with multiple cannabis clients, we've learned the industry nuances, federal and state legal considerations, and unique challenges that accompany the cannabis and hemp markets.
